

Invitation to my Companions

60th
Birthday

where Sant'Angelo
Naples, Italy

when 3 ^{Saturday}
July

I am turning 60 this year! Looking back I had an eventful life with many ups and downs and now want to take this jubilee as an opportunity to invite my past and present companions to Ischia, Italy. On the occasion we will relax and enjoy the best sides of Italy: food and good wine.

If you are interested and available you don't have to arrange for anything but landing in Naples in a good mood. My wish is to bring everyone together and remember the stories and journeys that we shared. There are certainly many.

I am looking forward to seeing you there!
